HOMEWORK FOR SUMMER VACATION

SESSION 2024-25

CLASS-III

SUBJECT- ENGLISH

1. Read the extracts and answer the following questions accordingly by choosing the correct option:

A. “She peered into the cage. Molly was lying there half dead. Somu’s mother took her out of the cage carefully and stroked her yellow feathers. She fed the little bird with fresh seeds and water. She was very angry with her son. ‘Somu, what a dreadful thing! If you can’t look after this poor creature, you have no right to keep it. I’m so ashamed of you,’ said the mother. Somu burst into tears and felt sorry. Thereafter, he looked after Molly, the little canary, very well.”

i. What was the dreadful thing?

- (a) Not looking after the pet dog.
- (b) Not looking after the cage.
- (c) Not looking after the poor creature.

ii. Why did Somu burst into tears?

iv. Somu’s mother stroked her yellow feathers because-

- (a) She wanted to kill the sparrow.
- (b) She wanted to save the half dead little yellow bird.
- (c) She was annoyed with the voice of the little creature.

B. "People have liked dolphins for thousands of years. Dolphins seem to like us too. What does a dolphin feel like? A wet rubber.

Dolphins spend their whole life in water. But they are not fish. Fish can breathe in water but dolphins breathe through a hole on top of their head.

What do dolphins eat? Fish! And they are good at catching them.

Dolphins live in groups so that they can help each other. If a killer shark comes by, the dolphins circle around it and scare it away.

Dolphins are usually gentle but sometimes they get angry. When they are angry, they make a loud, clapping noise with their jaws or slap the water hard with their tails.

Dolphins are often very helpful. One night a woman fell from a boat into the ocean. No one saw her fall. She tried to swim but soon grew tired. After a while, a dolphin came near her and gently pushed her towards shallow water. The woman was saved.

The dolphin had saved her."

i. How do we feel when we touch a dolphin?

(a) We feel like a hard rough pumice stone.

(b) We feel like a wet eraser.

(c) We feel like a soft creamy custard.

ii. Why do this warm blooded mammal live in groups?

(a) They make a group and fight with each other.

(b) They make a group to show circus to all the aquatic animals.

(c) They make a group to create a bond and help each other at the time of danger.

iii. How do the dolphins express their anger?

(a) By making clapping noise with their tails and head.

(b) By scaring the shark and slapping the water with their fins.

(c) By making clapping noise with their jaws or slapping the water hard with their tails.

iv. How did the dolphins show their helpfulness?

(a) By scaring the killer shark.

(b) By saving the life of a woman.

(c) By catching fish for others.

2. Read the passage below and make a table to find out the proper nouns, common nouns and pronouns.

Charlie and the Frog

Charlie was walking home from school one day and saw a frog on the road. The frog hopped over to Charlie and started to speak. "If you hug me, I will turn into a beautiful princess," said the frog. "I will love you forever!"

Charlie just looked at the frog and smiled. The frog yelled, "I will clean your room, cook for you, do your homework and love you forever!" Charlie smiled at the frog and put it back into his pocket. "What is wrong with you?" shouted the frog. "I have told you that I am a beautiful Princess and will love you forever. Why won't you hug me?"

"I am just a ten year old school boy," said Charlie. "I don't need a princess, but a talking frog is really cool!"

3. Look at the picture and write at least ten lines about it.
